ESTHER ZOBERMAN *
Mortality mingles souls. It tempers arrogance, and, when accepted and understood, brings tender insight.

What do we get in exchange for death? We get life...a vast panorama of possibilities and pathways. We get the sensation of taste and the satisfaction of ideas, the interesting development of personal growth, the beauty of intimacy with other people. We often get the gift of children and/or protégés, and we get the wisdom that risk and mistakes offer, only to the human species.

Mortals, their days are like those of grass; they bloom like a flower of the field. A wind passes by and it is no more; its own place no longer knows it. But the steadfast love of God is for all eternity for those who revere the Eternal, and God’s beneficence is for the children’s children.

- Selected from Psalm 103

A Personal Meditation
Eternal God, Master of mercy, give me the gift of remembering. May my memories of the dead be tender and true, undiminished by time; let me recall them, and love them, as they were. Shelter me with the gift of tears. Let me express my sense of loss – my sorrow, my pain, as well as my love, and words unspoken. Bless me with the gift of prayer. May I face You with an open heart, with trusting faith, unembarrassed and unashamed. Strengthen me with the gift of hope. May I always believe in the beauty of life, the power of goodness, the right to joy. May I surrender my being, and the soul of the dead, to Your all-knowing compassion.

B’yado
B’yado afkid ruchi, b’eit ishan v’aira
V’im ruchi g’veyati, Adonai li v’lo ira.
My soul I give to You, My spirit in Your care.
Draw me near, I shall not fear,
Hold me in Your hand/safely in Your hand.
We Recall

Our generations are bound to one another as children now remember their parents, husbands and wives now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children. Memory softens death’s pain as we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents, and our other relatives and friends.

The death of those we now recall left gaping holes in our lives. Even so, we are grateful for the gift of their lives, strengthened by the blessings they left us and the precious memories that comfort and sustain us, as we remember them this day.

Many of those to whom we owe so much are alive with us today; and we pray that we may be able to reward their goodness and their devotion to us by acts of love and loyalty.

But others have passed forever from our midst, leaving us a heritage of tender memories which now fill our minds.

Some of us recall today beloved parents who watched over us, nursed us, guided us, and sacrificed for us.

Some of us lovingly call to mind a wife or a husband with whom we were truly united—in our hopes and our pains, in our failures and our achievements, in our joys and our sorrows.

Some of us remember brothers and sisters, who grew up together with us, sharing in the play of childhood, in the youthful adventure of discovering life’s possibilities, bound to us by heritage of family tradition and by years of comradeship and love.

Some of us call to mind children, entrusted to our care all too briefly, taken from us before they reached the years of maturity and fulfillment, to whom we gave our loving care and from whom we received a trust which enriched our lives.

All of us recall beloved relatives and friends whose affection and devotion enhanced our lives, and whose visible presence will never return to cheer, encourage or support us.

Though they are gone from us we are grateful for the blessings they brought and were to us. Now, by giving to others the love which our departed gave us, we can partly repay the debt we owe them.
You Are A Light
You are a light
Inside my soul
Inside my heart
So full of hope
Your light shines in
My memory
I honor you
As part of me

I still remember all the things about your smile
The way you always made me feel
Those little things we did together in our time
In me your energy is real

You are a light
Inside my soul
Inside my heart
So full of hope
Your light shines in
My memory
I honor you
As part of me

Having had you in my life is such a gift to me
I know you didn’t want to leave
My life goes on, and I change and grow and learn
I know that’s what you’d want for me

You are a light
Inside my soul
Inside my heart
So full of hope
Your light shines in
My memory
I honor you
As part of me

By Louise Dimiceli-Mitran
BEFORE I GO
When my life has reached its very end,
And I take that final breath;
I want to know I’ve left behind,
Some “good” before my death.

I hope that in my final hour,
In all honesty I can say:
That somewhere in my lifetime,
I have brightened someone’s day.

That maybe I have brought a smile
To someone else’s face,
And made one moment a little sweeter
While they dwelled here in this place.

Lord, please be my reminder
And whisper softly in my ear…
To be a “giver,” not a “taker,”
In the years I have left here.

Give to me the strength I need,
Open up my mind and my soul…
That I might show sincere compassion,
And love to others before I go.

For if not a heart be touched by me,
And not a smile was left behind…
Then the life that I am blessed with,
Will have been a waste of time.

With all my heart, I truly hope
To leave something here on earth…
That touched another, made them smile
And gave to my life…worth.
WE REMEMBER THEM
At the rising of the sun and at its going down, we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

At the beginning of the year and at its end, we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share, we remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make, we remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs, we remember them.

For as long as we live, they too will live; for they are now part of us, as we remember them.

Psalm 23 Responsively

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.
He revives my spirit; He guides me in paths of righteousness for His name’s sake.
Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death. I fear no harm; for You are with me.
Your rod and Your staff comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my adversaries.
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
Achat Sha’alti
Achat Sha’alti mayayt Adonai otah avakesh
Shivti b’veyt Adonai kol y’may chayay
Lachazot b’noam Adonai u’lvaker b’haychalo
One thing I ask of God – for this I yearn:
To dwell in the house of Adonai
All the days of my life,
To behold God’s beauty, to pray in God’s sanctuary.

They Never Quite Leave Us
They never quite leave us, our friends who have passed through the shadows of death to the sunlight above;
A thousand sweet memories are holding them fast to the places they blessed with their presence and love.
The work which they left and the books which they read speak mutely, though still with an eloquence rare,
And the songs that they sang, the words that they said,
yet linger and sign on the desolate air.

The following prayer may be recited by worshipers who are blessed by having their parents still living while others are deciting Yizkor.

Almighty God, while those who have lost their parents and their dear ones call to mind those who have gone to their eternal rest, I at this solemn moment raise my eyes to You, the Giver of Life, and from a grateful heart, thank You for Your mercy in having preserved the life of my beloved father and mother.

My it be Your will, O Lord my God and the God of my ancestors, to bless them with health and strength, so that they may be with me for many years to come. Bless them even as they have blessed me, and guard them even as they have guarded me.

In return for all their love, affection, and the sacrifices which they have made for me, may I bring them joy and lighten their cared.
May it be my privilege to help them in every way that lies within my power; may I learn to understand and recognize the duty I owe to them. Amen
YIZKOR—In remembrance of a father:

May God remember the soul of my beloved father who has gone to his eternal rest. In tribute to his memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. Through such deeds and through my prayers I will hope to keep strong the ties that link me to his memory and into the fabric of our entire family. He was, and remains in so many ways, ever-present. May he rest forever in dignity and peace. Amen.

YIZKOR—In remembrance of a mother:

May God remember the soul of my beloved mother who has gone to her eternal rest. In tribute to her memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May I prove myself worthy of the gift of life and with the many other gifts with which she blessed me. May her soul be bound up in the bond of life and serve our family as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

YIZKOR—In remembrance of a husband:

May God remember the soul of my beloved husband who has gone to eternal rest. In tribute to his memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. The memory of our companionship and love still endures. Through constant telling of stories of his unique essence I will hope to keep his soul bound up intricately with ours. May his eternity be one of calm and serenity. Amen.
YIZKOR—In remembrance of a wife:

May God remember the soul of my beloved wife who has gone to her eternal rest. Love is as strong as death; deep bonds of love are indissoluble. I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness to extend into our world her memory. I will hope to keep her soul bound to ours in an unbroken bond of love. May her name be upon our lips and her goodness an enveloping warmth within us. Amen.

YIZKOR—In remembrance of a sibling:

May God remember the soul of my beloved brother/sister who has gone to his/her eternal rest. In loving testimony to his/her life I pledge to help perpetuate his/her ideals. I am grateful for the sweetness of our time together, his/her lasting contributions, and the bond of family which defies physical absence. The link of our souls is eternal and may he/she find a spiritual solace in his/her eternal home. Amen.

YIZKOR—In remembrance of a son:

May God remember the soul of my beloved son who has gone to his eternal rest. The love is overflowing, the pain is searing, yet I can believe that the connection which we had will endure. May his soul find a place beyond this world which is worthy of his presence. Allow him still to come to me in sweet remembrances, and may his memory never fade from my days. In his memory will I continue to live life-affirming days and thereby keep his dear legacy alive. Amen.
YIZKOR—In remembrance of a daughter:

May God remember the soul of my beloved daughter who has gone to her eternal rest. In all that I do, I try to honor the hopeful ambitions in her life. I dream of her, I speak of her, and I will always love her in a way unbeknownst to anyone. That connection was felt in the physical touch and remains ever so real upon my heart. May she be spiritually comfortable and may heaven be charmed with her within its midst forevermore. Amen.

YIZKOR—In remembrance of relatives and friends:

May God remember the souls of my relatives and friends who have gone to their eternal rest. In tribute to their memory I pledge to perform mitzvot which will allow me to continue the link that brought us together. In the interplay of life, we shared moments that will extend our relationship throughout time. They made a significant difference in my life and I will be grateful for each of them. May their souls find repose in green pastures. Amen.

YIZKOR—In remembrance of our martyrs:

May God remember the souls of our martyrs who gave their lives for the sanctification of His name, for the preservation of our people, and for the redemption of the Holy Land. May their heroism and sacrificial devotion be reflected in our thoughts and deeds. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life and their example be for us an enduring inspiration. May they rest forever in dignity and peace. Amen.
Our Grief Is Natural
Death brings so many reactions – and in such contrasting combinations. These emotions are a natural response to the death of a loved one. Allow yourself to feel these normal emotions, so that you can go through the grief and go on with life.

It is not enough to recognize your conflicting emotions; you must deal with them, openly. That is why the Period of Mourning in Judaism is so important. It is a time to express and share your feelings.

An emotion that is denied is not destroyed. It only prolongs the agony and delays the grief process…

Courage is not the absence of fear and pain, but the affirmation of life despite the fear and pain.

Memorial:
God on high, the souls of all for whom we offer prayer and devotional thought are within Your sphere. They gave their breath and lives for the most noble of causes. We yearn to be in rhythm with their spirits and to achieve peace of mind knowing they now abide in Your sheltering presence. May they rest within the tranquility they so richly deserve. Amen.
Memories Which Illumine Our World
There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated. And there are individuals whose memory lights the world after they have passed from it. These lights shine in the darkest night and illumine our path…

When reciting Kaddish we hear truly sacred music, the harmony of the spheres. The Kaddish serves as a mysterious gift, a balm for the soul.

Kaddish possesses wonderful power. Truly, if there is any bond strong and indissoluble enough to chain heaven to earth, it is this prayer. It keeps the living together, and forms the bridge to the mysterious realm beyond.
