Shabbat Shalom and Welcome to Congregation Beth Shalom!

We seek to enrich the lives of our congregation through ever-evolving ideals of observance, life-long learning, and acts of kindness from this generation to the next. We are committed to meeting the spiritual, educational and social needs of our members through the practice of Conservative Judaism in an all-inclusive manner. We seek to encourage involvement and create a sense of belonging by serving our community, the Jewish people, and the State of Israel.

We hope you enjoy worshiping with us. Following services, please join us for kiddush luncheon and introduce yourself so we may personally greet you.

Many members of our congregation have had allergic reactions to perfume and/or colognes. We are asking that if you could, please keep this in mind and refrain from using these products in the future. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Thought to Ponder:
What are the benefits of being a Kohen? What are the restrictions? Given the two, is it better to be a Kohen or a non-Kohen?

This Week's Parashah

The Torah portion begins with the laws regulating the lives of the Kohanim (priests), who presided over the sanctuary and its sacrifices. It then describes the holy days in the Jewish calendar, including Shabbat, Pesach, Shavuot, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, and Shemini Atzeret. Work is prohibited on all of these festivals, and special observances are prescribed for each one. Emor concludes with rules regarding capital punishment and restitution. These laws include showing reverence for parents, and refraining from both idolatry and desecrating the sacrificial system. The laws also include an outline for ethical behavior, including addressing the needs of the poor and dealing honestly and fairly with people. The Children of Israel will be permitted to live in the land of Israel as long as they live according to these commandments.

Today's Haftarah

This week's Haftarah describes the role of the Kohanim in the Holy Temple of Jerusalem. The Haftarah expresses the Prophet Ezekiel's assurance that the Jewish people, then living in Babylonian exile, will return to Jerusalem, and that worship in a rebuilt Temple will once again take place, under the guidance of the Kohanim. Only those Kohanim who served the Lord faithfully prior to the exile - when the People of Israel strayed from God - will be permitted to approach the Lord in the new sanctuary. Both the Haftarah and this week's Torah portion provide details about the rules governing the Kohanim. For example, the Torah tells us that a Kohen may not come into contact with the dead, with the exception of immediate family. The Haftarah, reiterating this prohibition, provides a ritual for purification if circumstances necessitate such contact.

Congregational Gifts for S'machot

B'nai Mitzvah receive gifts from the congregation, Sisterhood, Men's Club, JUF, the Youth Commission and Rochelle Zell Jewish High School.

Gifts presented to those celebrating aufrufs and babynamings are provided by the Zaransky Family Ticktin Jewish Community Memorial Fund.
