This Week's Parashah

The portion begins as Aaron prepares the lamps of the menorah. The presence of God hovers over the Tabernacle as a cloud by day and fire by night. When the cloud rises from the Tabernacle, it signals the people to journey forth; when the cloud comes to rest it signals them to set up camp. The Children of Israel complain to Moses and to God in two incidents. In the first response to the first incident, God causes a fire to break out and destroy the outskirts of the camp. The fire dies down after Moses prays. Soon after, Moses is overwhelmed by the complaining and weeping from the people, who now miss the food they had in Egypt. "Enough manna; we want meat," they cry! Moses turns to God saying, "Why have you burdened me with this ungrateful people? I cannot carry them alone." God tells Moses to gather 70 elders to aid him in leading the people. The Lord's spirit is implanted in each of the 70 appointed leaders. At Hazerot, Miriam and Aaron speak ill of Moses for having married a Cushite woman. They declare themselves to be prophets of equal stature to Moses. God rebukes Aaron and Miriam, reminding them that Moses is the only prophet to whom God speaks directly. As punishment for her slander, Miriam is stricken with leprosy.

Today's Haftarah

The prophet Zechariah looks ahead to the time when all the world acknowledges Israel's primacy as God's chosen. He relates a vision of Joshua, the Kohen Gadol (High Priest), standing before God and Satan. Joshua is dressed in dirty clothing, representing his defilement from failing to uphold God's word. But God is ready to forgive Joshua - to clothe him in fresh garments - as long as Joshua will walk in the Lord's ways and safeguard the Jewish teachings. An angel appears and shows Joshua a menorah of gold. Each of its seven lamps are filled with the oil from two nearby olive trees. The vision symbolizes God's constant care for his people. The closing verses of the Haftarah speak of Zechariah's vision of a seven-branched menorah, the type that stood in the Second Temple. This connects with the beginning of the portion Beha'alotcha, which describes the lighting of the menorah lamps by Aaron.
