Shabbat Shalom and Welcome to Congregation Beth Shalom!

We seek to enrich the lives of our congregation through ever-evolving ideals of observance, life-long learning, and acts of kindness from this generation to the next. We are committed to meeting the spiritual, educational and social needs of our members through the practice of Conservative Judaism in an all-inclusive manner. We seek to encourage involvement and create a sense of belonging by serving our community, the Jewish people, and the State of Israel.

We hope you enjoy worshiping with us. Following services, please join us for kiddush luncheon and introduce yourself so we may personally greet you.

Rabbi Aaron Melman • Cantor Steven Stoehr • Rabbi Warner Ferratier
Tanya Solomon, President • Rabbi Carl Wolkin, Emeritus

This Week's Parashah

When Balak, King of Moab, sees the victory of the Israelites over the Amorites, he becomes alarmed. Fearing that the Israelites are too powerful, Balak sends messengers to summon the prophet Balaam to the Israelites so that the Moabites can defeat them. Balaam sends the messengers back with the reply that God has told him not to curse the Israelites, for they are a blessed people. Balak doesn't give up and sends more emissaries. This time God agrees to let Balaam return to Moab with the understanding that he is to obey God's commands once he is there. As Balaam is on his way to Moab, his donkey sees an angel of God barring the way. Each time the ass balks at moving forward, Balaam beats her, until finally God gives her a voice with which to rebuke Balaam. Balaam is then made to see the angel who again tells Balaam that he is only to prophesy that which is told to him by God. After consulting God, Balaam proceeds to speak God's words in blessing Israel. Balak is enraged and takes Balaam to a different place, hoping that Balaam will curse the Israelites from there. At each place, however, Balaam speaks the words of God, blessing the Israelites. Finally, Balak dismisses Balaam. Before returning to his home, Balaam prophesies the destruction of Moab and the neighboring countries.

Today's Haftarah

In this Haftarah, the Prophet Micah reminds the people what God did for them at the time that God made them an Am Kadosh (a Holy Nation): "I brought you up from the land of Egypt, I redeemed you from the house of bondage, and I sent before you Moses, Aaron and Miriam." And what is it that God requires in return? "Only to do justice, to love goodness and to walk humbly with your God." The Torah and Haftarah readings are linked to Balak, the king of the Moabites. The Torah portion describes the encounter between the Israelites and Balak; the Haftarah makes direct reference to the encounter.

Congregational Gifts for S'machot

B'nai Mitzvah receive gifts from the congregation, Sisterhood, Men's Club, JUF, the Youth Commission and Rochelle Zell Jewish High School.

Gifts presented to those celebrating aufrufs and babynamings are provided by the Zaransky Family Ticktin Jewish Community Memorial Fund.

Synagogue Etiquette

In keeping with the spirit of Shabbat and to respect your fellow worshipers, please refrain from taking photographs, smoking and writing. If you must be accessible, please set your phone on silent. Please do not use your cell phone anywhere inside the building.

If you have any questions, please see one of our volunteer Shabbat Ambassadors or Greeters.

We invite you to visit www.BethShalomNB.org for more information about Beth Shalom and our many events, classes and programs happening throughout the year! All CBS religious services are live streamed.
