Shabbat
Pinchas

Shabbat Shalom and Welcome to Congregation Beth Shalom!

We seek to enrich the lives of our congregation through ever-evolving ideals of observance, life-long learning, and acts of kindness from this generation to the next. We are committed to meeting the spiritual, educational and social needs of our members through the practice of Conservative Judaism in an all-inclusive manner. We seek to encourage involvement and create a sense of belonging by serving our community, the Jewish people, and the State of Israel.

We hope you enjoy worshiping with us. Following services, please join us for kiddush luncheon and introduce yourself so we may personally greet you.

Rabbi Aaron Melman • Senior Cantor Steven Stoehr • Rabbi Warner Ferratier
Dr. Bob Spector, President • Rabbi Carl Wolkin, Emeritus

Many members of our congregation have had allergic reactions to perfume and/or colognes. We are asking that if you could, please keep this in mind and refrain from using these products in the future. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Thought to Ponder:
 Today's Haftarah is the first of a series which warn the Children of Israel prior to the destruction of the Temple. Why do you think there are multiple weeks of warning?

This Week's Parashah

Pinchas is the son of the priest Eleazar. His zeal in slaying the Israelite man and the Midianite woman in last week's parasha wins him the reward of priesthood for himself and his descendants for all time. Moses and Eleazar take a census of all male Israelites over twenty years of age. As God had decreed, all adults who had been a part of the first census (except for Moses, Joshua, and Caleb) died in the desert on the journey toward the Promised Land. Five daughters of Zelophehad protest the injustice that land was not given to their family solely because their father had no sons. God advises Moses that the plea of the daughters is just. God tells Moses to ascend the mountains to see the land given to the Israelites. Although he may see the land, he will never enter it. Moses is told to ordain Joshua the son of Nun as his successor. The portion concludes with instructions for the daily, Sabbath, monthly, and festival sacrifices to be brought before God.

Today's Haftarah

The Book of Jeremiah opens with the divine call to Jeremiah: Behold I have put My words in your mouth! See, I have appointed you this day [to speak] to nations and kingdoms, to uproot, to pull down, to destroy, to root out, to build and to plant. The prophet's words will contain harsh criticism of the people and foretell Jerusalem's destruction. But he will also bring the Jewish people a message of peace and hope. This is the first of three Haftarot traditionally read during the weeks leading up to Tisha B'Av, which commemorates the destruction of the First and Second Temples in Jerusalem. Appropriately, this morning's Haftarah comes from the Book of Jeremiah, the prophet who witnessed the destruction of the First Temple at the hands of the Babylonians in 586 B.C.E. It is believed that the Book of Lamentations, read on Tisha B'Av, was penned by Jeremiah.
