Shabbat Shalom and Welcome to Congregation Beth Shalom!

We seek to enrich the lives of our congregation through ever-evolving ideals of observance, life-long learning, and acts of kindness from this generation to the next. We are committed to meeting the spiritual, educational and social needs of our members through the practice of Conservative Judaism in an all-inclusive manner. We seek to encourage involvement and create a sense of belonging by serving our community, the Jewish people, and the State of Israel.

We hope you enjoy worshiping with us. Following services, please join us for kiddush luncheon and introduce yourself so we may personally greet you.

Rabbi Aaron Melman • Senior Cantor Steven Stoehr • Rabbi Warner Ferratier
Dr. Bob Spector, President • Rabbi Carl Wolkin, Emeritus

Many members of our congregation have had allergic reactions to perfume and/or colognes. We are asking that if you could, please keep this in mind and refrain from using these products in the future. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Thought to Ponder:

“You must not bring an abhorrent things into your house...” Deut. 7:26
Think about your home and consider what things you may wish to discard so as to maintain the sacredness which is inherent in your family’s sanctuary.

HAFTARAH	Isaiah 49:14-51:3	Harold Schwartz	1056

This Week’s Parashah

Moses continues his review of the forty years spent in the wilderness. He tells the people that if they obey God’s rules, God will maintain the covenant and they will prosper. God will continue to intervene on their behalf in the face of their enemies. Moses tells the Israelites that their wandering these forty years has been a test to understand the nature of the Israelites and to ensure that they will maintain God’s laws. Moses reminds the people that their food, clothing and all their needs come ultimately from God. They are told “when you have eaten your fill, give thanks to the Lord.” This verse is the basis for reciting Birkat HaMazon. The Israelites learn that it is not by their virtues that they will enter the Promised Land, for the Israelites have done nothing but provoke and anger God on their journey. They will enter the Land due to the oath God made to their ancestors, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. If the Israelites do all that God commands, they will have all they need: rain in its season and harvest when it is time. But if they are swayed by other gods and fail in keeping God’s commandments, they will suffer. This section (Deut. 11:13-21) forms the second paragraph of Sh’ma.

Today’s Haftarah

Isaiah assures the children of Israel that God has not forgotten them. God punishes Israel for its sins, yet takes Israel back in compassion. In the aftermath, Israel’s oppressors will suffer misfortune and they will come to know that there is but one God. “God will comfort Zion,” says the prophet, “making her wilderness like Eden.” What the people had seen destroyed will once again bloom. This is the second of seven “Haftarot of Consolation” that follow Tisha B’Av and lead into Rosh Hashanah. These Haftarat offer messages of comfort and encouragement that have sustained the Jewish people during centuries of persecution.

Congregational Gifts for S’machot

B’nai Mitzvah receive gifts from the congregation, Sisterhood, Men’s Club, JUF, the Youth Commission and Rochelle Zell Jewish High School.

Gifts presented to those celebrating aufrufs and babynamings are provided by the Zaransky Family Ticktin Jewish Community Memorial Fund.

Synagogue Etiquette

In keeping with the spirit of Shabbat and to respect your fellow worshipers, please refrain from taking photographs, smoking and writing. If you must be accessible, please set your phone on silent. Please do not use your cell phone anywhere inside the building.

If you have any questions, please see one of our volunteer Shabbat Ambassadors or Greeters.

We invite you to visit www.BethShalomNB.org for more information about Beth Shalom and our many events, classes and programs happening throughout the year! All CBS religious services are live streamed.
