CONGREGATION
BETH SHALOM

Shabbat

Ki Tavo

Shabbat Shalom and Welcome to Congregation Beth Shalom!

We seek to enrich the lives of our congregation through ever-evolving ideals of observance, life-long learning, and acts of kindness from this generation to the next. We are committed to meeting the spiritual, educational and social needs of our members through the practice of Conservative Judaism in an all-inclusive manner. We seek to encourage involvement and create a sense of belonging by serving our community, the Jewish people, and the State of Israel.

We hope you enjoy worshiping with us. Following services, please join us for kiddush luncheon and introduce yourself so we may personally greet you.

Rabbi Aaron Melman • Senior Cantor Steven Stoehr • Rabbi Warner Ferratier
Dr. Bob Spector, President • Rabbi Carl Wolkin, Emeritus

Many members of our congregation have had allergic reactions to perfume and/or colognes. We are asking that if you could, please keep this in mind and refrain from using these products in the future. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Thought to Ponder:

Why might the pilgrim's formula at the Temple include a history of the Jewish people?

HAFTARAH	Isaiah 60:1-22		1161

This Week's Parashah

After the Israelites settle the Land, they are to bring their first fruits to offer as a sacrifice. The offering is to be accompanied by a declaration that briefly reviews the origins and history of the Jewish people. Moses instructs the Israelites about tithing: A person's tithe consists of one-tenth of the harvest. This tithe is divided and distributed among the Levites, the strangers, the orphaned, and the widowed. Upon crossing the Jordan, the people are to set up 12 stones on Mount Ebal. The stones are to be covered with plaster and inscribed with "every word of this Torah." Ki Tavo concludes with a series of blessings and curses. The tribes are to be divided into two groups: Shimon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin will stand on Mt. Gerizim as each blessing is recited by the Levites, while the Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zevulun, Dan, and Naphtali tribes stand on Mt. Ebal. The curses stated in Deut. 27:16-26 are unique in that they address deeds that are difficult to uncover; they are often committed in secret. After each of these curses is recited, all the people respond with "Amen." The word "Amen" is related to "emunah" (faith) and comes from the Hebrew root meaning "firm." By saying "Amen," the people indicate their assent to the curses for these sins, and in a sense, making an oath to avoid them.

Today's Haftarah

Isaiah's vision of Jerusalem provides encouragement to the Jewish people in exile. He speaks of a time when God's light will shine on the holy city and the Jews will come streaming back to it. This will be a time of peace, says Isaiah: "No more shall the noise of violence be heard in your land, desolation and destruction within your borders." The Haftarah is a counterweight to the bitter catalogue of threats and curses which are found at the end of the Torah portion. This is the sixth of the Haftarot of Consolation chanted between Tisha B'Av and Rosh Hashanah. Nearly seven weeks ago we mourned the destruction of Zion on Tisha B'Av. Isaiah's vision of a restored land is a call for the people to arise from their sorrowful state.

Congregational Gifts for S'machot

B'nai Mitzvah receive gifts from the congregation, Sisterhood, Men's Club, JUF, the Youth Commission and Rochelle Zell Jewish High School.

Gifts presented to those celebrating aufrufs and babynamings are provided by the Zaransky Family Ticktin Jewish Community Memorial Fund.

Synagogue Etiquette

In keeping with the spirit of Shabbat and to respect your fellow worshipers, please refrain from taking photographs, smoking and writing. If you must be accessible, please set your phone on silent. Please do not use your cell phone anywhere inside the building.

If you have any questions, please see one of our volunteer Shabbat Ambassadors or Greeters.

We invite you to visit www.BethShalomNB.org for more information about Beth Shalom and our many events, classes and programs happening throughout the year! All CBS religious services are live streamed.
