RABBI MELMAN'S MINUTES

Rabbi Melman

Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz, reminds us of a very important message - there's no place like home. Indeed, there is no place like home. For two months, 7550 Benning Rd. at Fort Jackson in South Carolina was my home. It was more than just a house, so to speak, I made it a home. I cooked, celebrated Shabbat, decorated my room for Chanukah and lit candles. However, I have loved coming home, being back on the bima, and inside the walls of CBS.

It feels good to bring a new set of skills back to our congregational family. It feels good to bring a new sense of who I am as a rabbi, as a pastor, to our community. I've been reflecting on something I shared on the last Shabbat of 2021. Our patriarch, Jacob, requests to be buried with his father and grandfather (Isaac and Abraham). Joseph, before his death, requests that his bones be carried with the Israelites so that he may ultimately be buried in his ancestral home in the Land of Israel. Our people and our history remain connected to one another and to a very special place – a place that was home.

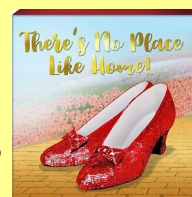

Shortly before Jacob's death, he gives his children and grandchildren a blessing and desires to let each one know of their destiny. Before he has the chance to reveal that information, he passes from the earth and it is up to each child to determine their own path. The message of determining one's own path is something I spent a lot of time thinking about while at the United States Army Chaplain Center and School. I believe that my training has now allowed me to offer a new set of blessings to people. I have been able to learn more about myself and new skills that better enable me to serve our CBS family – lifelong learning isn't just a saying; it is real and it is powerful.

Jacob's children had been through a lot in the Torah and yet there was still so much that they didn't know. They dealt with famine and overall tumult in their lives. Even when they are reunited with Joseph in Egypt, they aren't sure whether he will show them compassion. Will they be punished for their treatment of their brother all those years ago? Joseph doesn't hold a grudge, he is able to let go and embrace his brothers. This clear conscience allows him to transition from this life without a heavy heart and without any grievances. Joseph wants to be brought up, literally, having his bones carried to the Land of Israel, ultimately spiritually elevating his unburdened soul.

It is up to us to take these lessons of elevation and elevate our own spirits, our own souls, and our own hearts and minds even though, with good, legitimate reason, we might be stuck. As human beings, we must not let things consume us and not let the things that are troubling us overcome us. We can turn to each other, those that love us and care about us. We here, at CBS, are some of those people. We are here for you! Share with each other, share with us.

Too often, we focus on the destination and not the journey. I have appreciated and enjoyed each step along the way. There is so much more I want to share with you about my chaplain training, and God-willing, I will do so in person, over kiddush, at some point soon. Yes, there's no place like home, and I am excited to be here with all of you.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S EDITORIAL

Michael Garlin

The impact our WORDS can have.

We often talk without thinking first and without being aware of the impact of our words. Yet they can have powerful impact on others and on ourselves. Put your mind in gear before putting your mouth in motion. We need to encourage the use of words that celebrate and affirm life.

"I can live for two months on one good compliment" – Mark Twain

Our language is what sets us apart. It's what makes us distinctly human. We use words to connect with one another and to give meaning to our experiences. Before words we used hand gestures and drawings. When you are talking to someone else, what you're really doing is sending pictures back and forth.

Good teachers and good speakers paint vivid verbal pictures. They do this by telling good stories to make their points. If you are a good storyteller, you'll be a good teacher. They say a picture is worth a thousand words. A good story paints a thousand pictures. Words are what we use every day of our lives to connect with the world and the people in it. The tools we use to greet, inform, ask, answer, teach, encourage, comfort, praise, celebrate, thank, pray, laugh, and connect in a myriad of other positive ways. Kind words cost little but accomplish much. They can even change lives.

Words by Leo Rosten

They sing.

They hurt.

They teach.

They sanctify.

They were man's first,

Immeasurable feat of magic.

They liberated us from ignorance and our barbarous past.

A friend of mine is a teacher, and he asks his students each year to help him with an experiment. He shares with me that there is always positive energy right before class starts. Hal gives his class a list of negative words and asks them to look at it for a few minutes. He asks the students to form five pictures and write five sentences. Then the questions from the students start coming in. "This is a downer." "Why are we doing this?" "We thought you wanted us to be positive."

Hal always answers back that he wanted to teach them something about the emotional impact of words. A student yelled out, "you succeeded but now we all feel crappy." One student finally yelled out, "we assume you are going to give us a page of positive words also?" He smiled and handed out the sheet of positive words. The entire atmosphere in the room changed. Animated conversation and laughter and positive energy returned. Then they did the pictures and the sentences, and the room was much livelier.

One of his students shares "Words have more impact than I thought, and these are just on paper."

If a piece of paper with words on it can lower or raise the spirits of more than thirty people within seconds, think of the effect that some of the words we speak can have on others...and on ourselves.

Choose your words wisely, as their impact can last a lifetime. Thank you for having me back at CBS. I will always be grateful for this opportunity. Call or write me anytime, so we can share some words and smile and laugh.

FROM THE CONGREGATION PRESIDENT

Bob Spector

Shalom Chaverim,

I hope the first month of 2022 (Shevat 5782) has brought you good health both physically and spiritually. The full force of winter is upon us. I am writing this column during an 8-inch snow fall over New Year's weekend and we have temporarily closed our building due to COVID-19. I hope by the time you are reading this message our weather is much calmer and our doors have been re-opened. I am calling this message: A SIX-MONTH REVIEW: THE GOOD, THE BAD, AND THE UGLY.

I can't believe that I am already six months into my role as President. The summer started with our doors open to all and our summer ended with us having in-person High Holiday services (the GOOD). But the Delta variant raged on and took too many lives of our friends and loved ones and continued to economically cripple many members of our CBS family and extended community (the BAD). Due to the pandemic, many members who normally would be volunteering within our congregation and beyond have not been able to in order to stay safe (the necessity of this circumstance is the UGLY).

We have gone from mandating masking to mandating proof of vaccination. While I understand and accept that for the greater good this was the right decision, it was made with a great deal of internal conflict. One of my struggles (perhaps even a flaw and or curse) in my current role is that I always see the gray. I am guided by the moral imperative to keep our CBS community safe, but this decision does not come without a cost. At the time I am writing this message to you we are not able to welcome a number of our congregants in our building because of their vaccination status. In my 27 years as a member of Congregation Beth Shalom I never imagined that I would ever see this day (the BAD). I know that many of you are very appreciative of the CBS leadership for making this decision and I so appreciate the supportive messages I have received. However, I ask that you do not celebrate a necessary decision that results in the exclusion of some of our members being unable to enter our building. It is becoming much easier to vilify those who are choosing not to vaccinate. Politics and changing rules based on an evolving science (as we learn more about the variants) contribute to creating increased confusion, mistrust, and tension among most of us. I suspect that as we approach the two-year mark of this pandemic, I am not alone in feeling worn down by having this virus influencing and/or controlling so many of our daily decisions. While I am not apologetic for the decisions we have had to make regarding access to our building, I am sorry that we have not been able to welcome all because of these decisions.

With this said, I end this message with my belief in the GOOD. We are an amazingly kind and caring community. We will continue to be supportive of and invested in helping those in need. We will continue to move forward together. I would like to end with sharing with you, our mission. I along with our CBS leadership and staff are committed to being ever mindful of these ideals as we continue to navigate these uncertain times.

We seek to enrich the lives of our congregation through ever-evolving ideals of observance, life-long learning, and acts of kindness from this generation to the next.

We are committed to meeting the spiritual, educational and social needs of our members through the practice of Conservative Judaism in an all-inclusive manner.

We seek to encourage involvement and create a sense of belonging by serving our community, the Jewish people, and the State of Israel.

L'Shalom,

Bob

YOUTH/YOUNG FAMILY PROGRAMMING

Eric Golberg

Hello and happy February! We have so much fun happening for our teens this month! We will have Lounge Nights every Thursday this month with some exciting programs such as IsraelVision, Cover Your Book, and Backyard games! These programs are from 7-9 pm on Thursday Nights in the Gloss Youth Lounge for 8th-12th graders. All participants must be masked and vaccinated!

Unfortunately, this will be my final bulletin article. I am moving on from my role as CBS Director of Youth & Young Family Engagement to attend graduate school where I will be studying Learning Experience Design. I am thankful for all of the amazing and wonderful people

I have had the opportunity to meet and work with during my time here. I want to especially thank the CBS staff for being a phenomenal team of caring and talented individuals for not only supporting me but each other (especially through these last two years!). I also want to thank the Board of Trustees for giving me the opportunity to grow and develop here at CBS. Though no goodbye is easy, I know that the Youth program will be in good hands and I look forward to hearing that our chapter wins Chapter of The Year again this year (I am manifesting this since the award won't be given out until May). Thank you all again for making Congregation Beth Shalom an amazing place to work for the last three years.

Everything Old is New Again: Antisemitism...Ancient Hatred, New Challenges

More and more incidents of antisemitism are being reported every day. Assault, harassment and vandalism against Jews and Jewish property remain at near-historic levels in the U.S. Yet this plague of hatred is not new to this time of social media and post-pandemic rhetoric. This course will discuss the 2000-year-old roots of antisemitism and its distinct historical memes that have evolved throughout the centuries. We will also explore what the present and future holds for the Jews as antisemitism becomes more and more part of our modern-day society.

Continuing our "meet the CBS Men's Club Executive Board" series, this month we introduce you to Ron Rabinowitz, Recording Secretary. Ron was born in Rochester, NY to Israeli born parents, Dalia and Jay. At the age of ten, Ron and his family moved to Chicago for his father's new position with American Hospital Supply. They immediately became members of CBS in 1977. Ron, his parents, brothers and spouses (Dan & Joyce, David & Nancy) are all members of Congregation Beth Shalom. Ron's sister, Daphna, and her family also live in the area and are members of BJBE.

After Ron's Bar Mitzvah at CBS with Rabbi Wolkin, he attended Glenbrook North where he was in the marching and symphonic bands playing the drums including performances at the Peach Bowl in Atlanta and on the steps of the Capitol in Washington. Ron then graduated with an economics degree from The Ohio State University. While at Ohio State, Ron was active in Hillel and was a member of the AEPi Fraternity. After graduation, Ron returned to Chicago and became involved in a JUF Young Leadership Division program called JUF Leads. This is where he met his wife, Missy Liepack, originally from Columbus, Ohio. After getting married in Columbus, they started a family here, where they have two daughters, Marni graduating from University of Minnesota this spring and staying in St. Paul with a job in computer sciences with Travelers Insurance, and Lindsey, who just started college at Michigan State University majoring in communications.

Ron has been in the financial industry for over 25 years and currently works for Bio Century in investment research of the BioTech Industry. Missy works in the HR division of the College of American Pathologists in Northfield. Ron and Missy have family in Israel and have been there numerous times for family trips. Ron's most recent trip to Israel was a "guys" trip with the L'Chaim Center in the North suburbs. The entire Rabinowitz family are all strong supporters of AIPAC and have attended the last 7 conventions together as a family. Ron and Missy had an amazing trip to Paris seeing many Jewish sites when they celebrated their 25th anniversary a few years ago.

We thank Ron for all his hard work as Recording Secretary and look forward to him taking on more leadership roles at CBS Men's Club in years to come.

Please make sure you purchase a CBS Lox Box (or two...or three...or more) with a delivery to your door on March 6th. Enjoy the Month of February and watch for our next article introducing you to our 2022 Kavod Award Honoree.

Remix Judaism: Preserving Tradition in a Diverse World

ALL are Welcome!

Professor Kwall will discuss the thesis of her widely acclaimed new book, Remix Judaism: Preserving Tradition in a Diverse World as it applies generally and particularly to families and communities affiliated with Conservative Judaism. Her book demonstrates how developing a richer set of culturally religious norms can provide a foundation for transmissible Jewish tradition, even if some of the normative requirements of Jewish law are remixed.

In-person & live stream

<https://www.bethshalomnb.org/pray/live-streaming/>

Let's pray and have fun at the same time!

Now that the winter holiday season has come to an end, I'd like to take this time to share all the good that has been done over the past few months.

November Candy Drive –

This candy drive was such an incredible success! Members of our congregation dropped off bags and bags of candy. But then the candy collection took on a life of its own! The following people also organized candy collections in their neighborhoods, shuls, and schools:

Lawrence LeVine - The Strathmore

Neighbors of Lake County

Maria Perna - The Terramere Neighbors Association

Paula Carter - Old Farm Village

Neighbors

Allison Zimbalist – Congregation Beth

Judea

Jamie Brodsky, student council teacher at

West Oak Intermediate School, Mundelein

Thanks also to Sara Weinstein and Toni Rosen for help in delivering candies. A very special thanks go to Jill and Harold LeVine who were at the heart of the collection and donation process! Because of all that was collected, we were able to offer sweetness to the following organizations in our area:

- WINGS
- All Saints Lutheran Food Pantry
- Vernon Township Food Pantry
- St. Mary's Church Food Pantry of Buffalo Grove
- St. Mary's Church Food Pantry of Vernon Hills
- St. Edna's Church Food Pantry
- Congregation Beth Am Food Pantry in Buffalo Grove
- Alphonsus Church Food Pantry in Prospect Heights
- Indiana National Guard
- PADS
- Northfield Food Pantry
- Fill a Heart for Kids
- ARK NW
- GiveNKind – Mundelein
- Indiana Army National Guard 2-152 Infantry
- Kingswood United Methodist Church
- Buffalo Grove Food Pantry
- Sue's Food Pantry, Vernon Hills
- Wheeling Township Food Pantry
- Youth Services – Glenbrook/Northbrook

A final HUGE thanks to Jill Olefsky who was really the driving force behind this entire project! She picked up the candy from our shul and the various collection sites and organized it into boxes and then dispersed it to her crew for delivery. She turned her living room into a candy warehouse of sorts! She is truly SWEET!

Hunger Free Northbrook – Leatte
Gelfeld @ 312-310-6950

Over the past 2.5 years, Hunger Free Northbrook has provided over 22,000 meals for students in Northbrook who are food insecure. Congregation Beth Shalom has been involved since its inception and has contributed many of those 22,000 meals! A huge Kol Ha Kavod goes to Leatte Gelfeld for her continuing efforts to collect and deliver the food bags to local Northbrook schools.

ARK Shoppers – Merrill Medansky @
847-559-8097

Merrill Medansky is the driving force for our congregations ARK shopping program. She, along with a dedicated team of shoppers, provides groceries to local families in need. Shoppers are reimbursed from the Gold Family Sabbath Fund. Please, get involved in this very important project. You can choose to shop just once or make it a family mitzvah project. Thank you, Merrill, for all you do to make this all happen.

PADS – Sara Weinstein @ 847-477-5993

Thank you to Sara Weinstein for her ongoing efforts with PADS. Although the shelter has not be open for meal service, PADS has been housing their clients at a local hotel and meals have been provided by restaurants in the neighborhood. Sara continues to collect monetary donations and will let us know when PADS will open again for in person services.

Northfield Food Pantry – Fern
Roseman @ 847-564-9266

Not enough can be said about the need for food in our community. The Northfield Food pantry has experienced low shelves especially in the time of Covid. Fern Roseman has been our connection to the Pantry and is a true “tour de force!” Her efforts ensure families in our community are well fed.

If you would like to get involved in any of the projects listed above, please reach out to one of these amazing volunteers. If you have any other social action projects that you'd like to share with me, feel free to email me at:

SocialActionVP@bethshalomnb.org

Together we do great things!

Suzy
