RABBI CHAPMAN’S CHRONICLE’S

Rabbi Chapman

Does this spark joy? That is de-cluttering expert Marie Kondo’s famously straightforward criterion for deciding what to keep and what to discard. In her book, Kondo invites us to "imagine yourself living in a space that contains only things that spark joy. Isn’t this the lifestyle you dream of?"

As someone who just moved 800 miles across the country, I had a perfect opportunity to practice what Kondo preaches. Moving makes me ask, "Is this worth keeping?" about every object we own.

The problem is, I’m not completely onboard with Kondo’s yardstick. Is our goal in life to only experience joy? After all, the Zohar teaches that joy and weeping are often lodged side-by-side in our hearts. Glancing over my shelves, I own plenty of books that do not spark joy. Some espouse interpretations of Judaism I vehemently disagree with. To be honest, there are a handful of verses in the Torah itself that do not “spark joy.” And yet, I keep them around. Why? Maybe they inspire me to work harder. Maybe they offer me humility. Maybe they force me to sharpen my arguments and challenge my assumptions.

These are all valuable pursuits for a rabbi (and, I think, for all of us), but none would fall under the category “sparking joy.”

As we enter the High Holiday season, we are asked to create our own personal inventory, a process we call cheshbon hanefesh – accounting for our soul. What should we keep for the year ahead, and what should we discard? Let’s go deeper than Kondo’s simplistic “joy” yardstick. Perhaps, in your spiritual preparations, you find yourself hanging onto something that is not joyful: a regret, a loss, a missed opportunity. Before you chuck it in the “discard” pile, ask yourself, what can this experience offer me? Can it teach me something? Can it catalyze change or growth? Psalm 30 teaches, “God transforms my sorrow into dancing.” In other words, sometimes to get to dancing, you must begin with sorrow.

This Rosh Hashanah, I pray that we can all find meaning in whatever our soulful searches uncover. Shana tova.

Shalom Chaverim,

I cannot believe that the summer season is almost in our rear-view mirror. Our children are back in school, and the High Holidays are right around the corner. I hope you have found CBS to be a source of healing and support these past few weeks since the violent attack of our neighbors on July 4th. We are blessed to have such kind and caring religious leaders who dedicate themselves to being available when we need them the most.

You will notice this year on the Yom Kippur Appeal that not only will you see dollar amounts, but will also have see a tab that reads “I am interested in volunteering.” Our hope is that not only will you support CBS in our largest fundraiser of the year, but will consider turning this tab down, as well. I have several initiatives that I am working on in year two of my Presidency including long term strategic planning, increasing our revenue, and increasing volunteerism within our CBS community. My image of CBS is that of an equilateral triangle. The two angular sides represent a strong lay leadership group and a dedicated, hard-working staff. But the foundation of that triangle is all of you, our congregation. You will hear more about this on the first day of Rosh Hashanah as part of my High Holiday appeal. Yes, we absolutely need your financial support to maintain the highest level of social, spiritual, and educational opportunities at CBS. But equally important, WE NEED YOU. Your presence and involvement in our community are the real strength and essence of Congregation Beth Shalom. There are so many ways to get involved – attending services (especially daily minyan), supporting our social action projects, attending classes and programs, and joining Men’s Club or Sisterhood are just a few.

Several weeks ago, I was talking to a friend after Shabbat services. Naturally, I asked them how they were doing, and their response was I believe not atypical given the state of our world today, “I’m flailing,” a verb implying that life is a struggle. I tried to assure this person that while life may feel very difficult right now, if one is being active in their attempts (even during times of struggle) to make it better there is always hope. Over the past two years, I suspect many of us have felt for periods of time like we have been flailing. I believe the connection we made in that two-minute interaction created a warm feeling for both of us. This is what CBS can be for all of us. I hope you have access to many resources and opportunities in your lives to provide and receive social and emotional support and count Congregation Beth Shalom among them.

As you begin your preparations for the High Holidays, please consider how not just membership but involvement in our community can impact your lives. I believe that CBS provides a unique experience unmatched by others. CBS is a community where we can come together to laugh, to cry, to argue, to complain (yes, even here), to pray, to party, to celebrate, and to mourn. CBS is a community where you will be accepted for how you choose to express your Jewish identity. CBS is community in which each member can have an impact and truly make a difference in the lives of others.

I wish for you a High Holiday season experienced with good health and filled with joyous gatherings with your friends and loved ones.

Shanah Tovah,

Bob

I'm Sorry - Unintentional Moments

This is the time of year, during Yom Kippur, we should all be asking for forgiveness. Whatever wrong we did purposely or unintentionally, as Jews we need to apologize. I want to take this time to personally apologize to anyone and everyone that I may have upset over the past year. At CBS we take enormous pride in our work, and the goal we aim for is not to make mistakes; however, we are human, and it happens. We are asking for your forgiveness.

We are apologizing for the Live Streaming that sometimes doesn't work. It is fantastic technology and when it works perfectly, it is like watching TV. But occasionally the sound does not align with the picture and other times the stream decides it just wants to stop. We don't know why, maybe it's angry with us. It is frustrating for everyone, you the viewer, but also the staff trying to get it to work. I think most would agree that it is much better to go to a live event (sports, music, and yes, synagogue) than watch on TV. We are not in control of the crowded streaming highway and how it impacts the technology when it leaves our building. Sometimes there are hiccups along the way. We know this and we are apologizing.

We are apologizing for spelling your name incorrectly or a loved one's incorrectly. We manage thousands of names of congregants, their extended family, and friends. The mistakes may be with spelling Weinstein or Wienstein, Goldstein or Goldstien, or nicknames Bob or Robert, Susan or Sue. The mistakes are unintentional, and we will get it right the next time. We apologize and promise to do better.

We are apologizing for sending out 2 or 3 death notices in the same day and sometimes within minutes of each other. Our intention is not to clog your email or disrespect those that have passed but we truly want to honor the wishes of the family that is struggling with loss. We know that when a family is in crisis that things can change in a moment and sometimes, they need to make a last-minute change, so we send it again. Sometimes we make the mistake, and it needs to be resent. We do try to find the balance of waiting to get as much information as possible and making the congregation aware of a loss as soon as possible, however we apologize for sometimes having to send several revisions.

We are apologizing for sending too many emails and not enough emails. Yes, we get both of those critiques each week. If you get too many, we are communicating and trying to find ways to keep you engaged. If you aren't receiving your emails, please check your junk folder, it is possible it is set up on your system differently and you need to make us a safe sender. We are apologizing for not sending enough and sending too many emails.

We are apologizing for the sanctuary being too cold and too hot at the same time. Every person has their own personal thermostat, and we are trying to accommodate each of you. Please remember that men come dressed in many layers with their tallit and women come dressed appropriately with significantly less layers. We do have blankets available for those of you that feel a chill and those that are overheated are encouraged to take off your jackets. We are apologizing as we know it's too cold and too hot at the same time.

We are apologizing for having too many programs at the same time. With so many groups; Men's Club, Sisterhood, School, Adult Education, and Youth Programming, we have so many opportunities for so many people to be active in our community. We work hard not to over program but to offer a wide variety of programs, classes and ritual services that appeal to all of our congregants. We are apologizing for offering too many programs.

We are apologizing if we didn't get you the information in a timely manner. I promise you that if you go to our website, it's all there, all of it. We send out a weekly Byte, a monthly bulletin and update the website regularly. Our apologies.

During this time of forgiveness, I hope you can accept our apology. We as a synagogue work hard in making it right every day for everyone, but we are human, and we make mistakes. We will continue to improve our systems and continue to make improvements. We sincerely apologize and please know that we care. We wish you and your family a beautiful and memorable holiday season.

SISTERHOOD

Jackie Zelkowitz

Congregation Beth Shalom Sisterhood has been working hard during the summer planning so many wonderful programs for the year to come. It all starts on Wednesday, September 14th with our annual Opening Dinner. The dinner gives us the opportunity to reconnect after the long, hot summer to enjoy each other's company and celebrate the start of a new Sisterhood year. We are very fortunate to have Peggy Shapiro, National Director of Special Projects/Retired Midwest Director of StandWithUs as our speaker.

During September, Sisterhood will team up with the Religious School and the congregation to collect canned food/shelf stable food and disposable diapers for the Northfield Township Food Pantry and The Ark. Please consider helping us stock the shelves. Our collection drive will run through the month.

September is also a perfect time for me to highlight an outstanding congregational resource in the Louis Gurvitz Memorial Sisterhood Judaica Shop. The shop is a resource year round with beautiful artwork, gifts, toys, and Judaica. During the High Holidays, however, the shop brings us the annual Challahday Challahs. Round plain challahs are available for only $6, Round Raisin Challahs are only $7, and Honey Cakes are only $10. Orders must be prepaid and received by Friday, September 9th, and can be picked up on Friday, September 23rd curbside at CBS. Order at tinyurl.com/shchallah22. Diana Lewis, Darlene Padnos, and Donna Fox are amazing, and they have so much fun finding beautiful merchandise for the shop throughout the year. You can shop online at <https://cbs-sisterhood-judaica-shop.square.site/>. Or, if you prefer to shop in person, you can schedule an in-person appointment, by contacting Diana, Darlene or Donna at cbsjudaica@gmail.com.

Join us in Sisterhood. It would be my pleasure to meet you personally and introduce you to our members. You can attend one of our programs, and if you have an hour or two, we would love to invite you to help. There is always a place for you. If you join us, you will see that although there are over a thousand member households at CBS, we are really a small family at heart. By now, you should have received the Sisterhood mailing. If you did not, please reach out to me.

Wishing you and your family a Happy and Healthy New Year.

L'Shanah Tovah to you and your family!

Steve Lessman

Dr. Andrew Wagner

Welcome back to another year of Men's Club programming at Congregation Beth Shalom! We have another great year of fun and activities planned. We hope everyone had a wonderful summer and are already getting back to a more normal life with school and work.

September activities will begin on Wednesday the 21st with the Men's Club Opening Dinner including WMVP's Operations Director, Randy Merkin, talking about his book "Behind the Glass: Stories from a Sports Radio Producer" and a Men's Club prepared delicious dinner. We are looking forward to interacting with our TEN new board members and newest Men's Club members on that evening.

Here are some dates to enter in your calendars for the upcoming year for the CBS Men's Club.

- Wednesday, September 21, 2022: Opening dinner
- Thursday, October 13, 2022: Steaks in the Sukkah featuring the Chicago Bears vs. the Washington Commanders
- Saturday, November 12, 2022: Men's Club and Sisterhood Event
- Sunday, March 12, 2023: Lox Box Delivery
- April 15, 2023: Men's Club Shabbat
- Thursday, June 15, 2023: Men's Club Golf Outing & Installation Dinner

This month we meet our Men's Club Recording Secretary, David Lasky. David is the son of Bob<sup>z"l</sup> and Barbara Lasky, long time members of Congregation Beth Shalom. David attended Hebrew School along with his sister, Janice Lasky Zeid, and his brother, Steve, at CBS, and David celebrated his Bar Mitzvah in Israel. He attended Glenbrook South and participated in many activities including soccer, cross country, track and martial arts. David began a long career in Martial Arts at the age of eight practicing Judo at the Northbrook YMCA and eventually Tae Kwon Do in high school and college. David attended the University of Iowa and continued this on the Iowa Tae Kwon Do team, both teaching and competing. David majored in psychology and minored in business administration at Iowa and then completed a master's program in psychology at the Adler School of Professional Psychology. He became a Certified Alcohol and Drug Abuse Counselor (CADC) and a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor (LCPC) in the late 90's.

David began his counseling career at the Center for Addictive Problems in 1996. In 1999, he began what became a nationally recognized award winning substance abuse prevention program with the Albany Park Community Center, where he was promoted to the Director of Development during his final four years there. David met his wife Jodi in Albany Park at an evening social event. They married two years later and moved from Arlington Heights to Buffalo Grove and finally to Northbrook. They have a daughter, Madelyn, who celebrated her Bat Mitzvah in Israel and is currently attending Illinois State University and a son, Sean, a senior at Glenbrook North.

During his time at the Albany Park Community Center his love for martial arts inspired him to start his own school in Chicago, Lasky Martial Arts, which he owned from 2001-2012. In 2006, he started working at Universal Scrap Metals with his brother-in-law, Jason Zeid, and became Director of Sales & Marketing, the position he holds to this day.

Along with CBS, David is involved in the Technology and Manufacturing Association, started their Young Leaders Board in 2010, and has worked on their marketing committee. After serving on CBS Men's Club Board, last year he took on the responsibility of Recording Secretary where he sends out letters to CBS members sharing our club's contribution to the Youth Scholarship Fund for various life cycle events. This year David joined the Men's Club softball team and is enjoying his time on the field. We thank David for his efforts as CBS Men's Club Recording Secretary and look forward to his CBS Men's Club involvement for years to come.

Andy and I want to wish everyone a Happy and Healthy New Year as we celebrate the High Holidays later this month. May you all be inscribed into the Book of Life for a good and prosperous New Year.

See you soon at our Men's Club opening dinner.

Steve and Andy

Jewish Genealogy: Old Myths and New Science (DNA)

Mike Karsen

Past President, Jewish Genealogical Society of Illinois

Sunday, September 11, 2022

Breakfast ($7) at 9:30 am

Program at 10:00 am

Jewish Genealogy is an evolving pursuit to discover who we are and from where we came. Many have heard that we cannot do Jewish Genealogy because our names were changed at Ellis Island and the original records were destroyed, but these are myths. This presentation will dispel those myths and give you the information you need to pursue your family's history.

Advance registration is requested at <https://bit.ly/cbsmensclub>

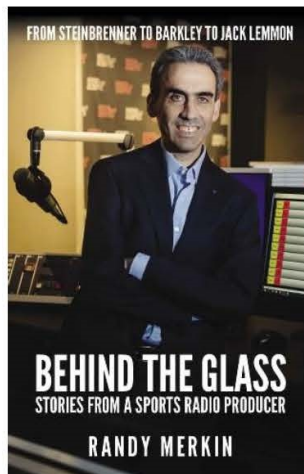

Breakfast will be served first to those who register in advance.

SOCIAL ACTION

WHAT YOU DO COUNTS

As we approach the High Holy days, I want to take a moment and give kavod to people who go above and beyond for our congregants and the larger community, and because of their self-less efforts, they make the world a better place.

First, Merrill Medansky. Since January of 2009, she has been coordinating the volunteers who shop for, and deliver groceries to our clients at The Ark. Back in 2009, many of those clients were heavily concentrated in Chicago, and over the past 13 years, she and her many, many volunteers have seen a shift in their clients to the suburbs in and around Northbrook. Merrill has been an amazing organizer and chairperson for this invaluable service Congregation Beth Shalom provides to The Ark. Thank you, Merrill, for all you have done! Your quiet leadership and your team of shoppers are so amazing. Kol ha'kavod and we are beyond grateful for the time and energy you have given all these years!

Second, Fern Roseman. As the Sisterhood Chairperson for the Mitzvot Committee, she and her crew of over 60 volunteers, are instrumental in a wide variety of helping projects both in our congregation and for the greater community. Here are just a few of the incredible things they do:

- They facilitate transportation (including driving or providing taxi coupons) so congregants can go to doctors' appointments, grocery shop, and attend services at Beth Shalom.
- The Mitzvot Committee are the first people to greet each person who comes into our building for Shabbat and Holiday services. Beyond the welcoming, they provide large print prayer books, devices for hearing, and even reading glasses!
- Shabbat candle delivery to Glenbrook Hospital
- The committee makes wellness calls to our senior most members, making sure they are doing well and if they need anything, the committee makes it happen, including a new service to provide our seniors kosher meals.

Fern is also our "Chesed" lady! Trained by Cantor Stoehr and the Jewish Healing Network of Chicago, she reaches out to each family who has had a loss and offers support with a variety of services including help with arranging shiva meals and servers. She and her team of volunteers, will again reach out to the families weeks later, to see how they are doing and if they need further support. But Fern's greatest work comes with her work for the Northfield Food Pantry. She collects, organizes, sorts, and delivers food that has been collected at Beth Shalom.

Both amazing women, quietly and without a lot of fanfare, do so very much for so many. So, the month of September our Social Action focus will be for food collections. Each time you come into the building, please bring canned food. Consider making a donation to The Ark or to the Northfield Food Pantry. Fill your brown paper bag that you receive during High Holiday ticket pick-up and bring it back full before Kol Nidre! And, when you see these ladies, thank them for all they do.

Todah Rabah

Social Action is always collecting:

- Brown paper bags (food pantries)
- Canned food (Northfield Food Pantry & The Ark)
- Disposable Diapers (Northfield Food Pantry & The Ark)
- Bras (I Support the Girls)
- Eyeglasses (Lions Club)
- Newspapers (Orphans of the Storm)
- Donations for Hunger Free Northbrook

Welcoming a new baby to the family and to the Jewish community is a wonderful event for families to celebrate.

How meaningful it is for Beth Shalom families to have a Brit Milah or Simchat Bat at Beth Shalom.

Please contact Maria Catezone, Office Manager, at 847-498-4100x26 or email MCatezone@BethShalomNB.org for more information and synagogue availability.

Twitty combines autobiography, recipes, and poignant reflection in The Cooking Gene: A Journey Through African American Culinary History in the Old South and Abby Chava Stein shares her life story in Becoming Eve: My Journey from Ultra-Orthodox Rabbi to Transgender Woman. We have had so many wonderful donations that our shelves are bursting with new and new-to-us books - fiction, children's' books, cook books, t'filah, and, of course, Daniel Silva's mysteries.
