Followed by Neilah, the concluding service of the day.

(Neilah refers to the closing of the gates. As dusk approaches and Yom Kippur draws to a close, these are the final penitential prayers. Many people remain standing for the entire service. The Neilah service concludes with the sounding of the final blast of the Shofar.)

The final Shofar Blast will be at approximately 7:05 p.m.

Tickets are required at all services and are not transferable between locations and/or service start times as stated on your tickets.

Children 3 and under are always welcome in all services on their parents lap. Sorry, no strollers allowed.

All CBS Congregants are invited to enjoy any of our High Holidays services from our Live Stream from the Kamensky Sanctuary: www.bethshalomnb.org/pray/live-streaming/. You will receive an email with the password approximately a week prior to the holiday.
