The Ark has been a beneficiary of the Men's Club Lox Box program for decades. We've all heard of The Ark, but few of us truly understand the depth and breadth of the services they offer, and the value that they deliver to their clients. The Ark has been helping Chicagoland Jews facing adversity to navigate toward self-reliance within a framework of Jewish values and laws since 1971.

Please join us for breakfast and an interactive discussion about how The Ark works with clients in the Greater Chicagoland Area, including many living in the North and Northwest suburbs. Dawn Lieberman, Director of Community Engagement and Education, and Cheryl Wittenstein, Director of Marketing and Communications will provide insights into how they support The Ark's 4000+ clients who are struggling to navigate life's challenges, and how we can help support their efforts.
