This Week's Parashah

God commands Moses to take a census of the Israelites. God tells Moses to make articles for the Priests to use when entering the Tent of Meeting. Moses is told to remind the Israelites to keep the Sabbath as a sign of the covenant. God gives Moses two tablets on which the laws are inscribed, but the Israelites have grown impatient in the time that Moses was up on Mount Sinai. They demand that Aaron fashion for them a god. Under great duress, he relents and makes a Golden Calf. God tells Moses that the Israelites have turned away from the laws. God will destroy them and make Moses' descendants a great nation. Moses pleads with God to spare the people. As the Israelites worship the calf, Moses descends the mountain. Angered, he smashes the tablets and destroys the calf. God tells Moses to carve two new tablets of stone for God to inscribe again with the words of the law.

The maftir reading for Shabbat Parah deals with the red heifer whose ashes were combined with water to ritually purify anyone who had been in contact with a dead body. Because only people who were pure could eat from the Passover sacrifice, a public announcement right before Nisan reminded anyone who had become impure to purify themselves before making the Passover pilgrimage to Jerusalem.

Today's Haftarah

Whereas the maftir Torah portion presents an ancient rite of detoxification whereby individuals who have become impure through contact with the dead are purified and restored to the community, the corresponding haftarah announces Israel's revivification (getting a new heart & spirit) as well as its purification by God. Rashi understood this haftarah to be a signal to the community that the Pesach sacrifice should be performed in ritual purity. Likewise, today we aim to be ritually meticulous in our Pesach preparations.
