Yizkor is for letting the music come back, softly and sweetly. Yizkor is to hush us and to heal us, because we are very tired under the burden which death has brought. Yizkor is to hush us with the quiet strength of prayer. Yizkor is to heal us with the wisdom that death gives urgency to life. Then sit quiet, without bitter tears, and let the silence flow in, bringing more love than grief, more gratitude than rebellion. - Rabbi Jacob Philip Rudin

Many members of our congregation have had allergic reactions to perfume and/or colognes. We are asking that if you could, please keep this in mind and refrain from using these products in the future. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

If you are interested in being a part of our community, please contact Michael Garlin, Executive Director.

Torah reading Day 7

God leads the newly free Israelites from Egypt - by day in a pillar of cloud, and by night as a pillar of fire. Pharaoh regrets letting the Israelites go, and sends an elite chariot force after them. On God's instruction, Moses divides the sea, and the Israelites pass through safely. When the Egyptians follow, the sea closes over them. In gratitude for the redemption, Moses composes the Song of the Sea.

Torah reading Day 8

In reviewing the observances of the three Pilgrimage Festivals, Moses begins by placing Pesach in "the month of Aviv" (Spring). The Israelites will be required to offer a Paschal sacrifice, to eat matzah, and to remember the Exodus from Egypt all the days of their lives. Fifty days later, they will observe Shavuot - the Feast of Weeks. And in the fall, Sukkot will be celebrated. All three festivals were occasions for Jews to come with offerings to God's Sanctuary.
