Programming Report

Randy Samborn, Programming VP

Save the date: 8 p.m. Wednesday, October 18, for our next Distinguished Speaker Series program: "Religious Freedom Under Attack: Fighting back in Court," featuring Joyce Vance and Northbrook native, Neal Katyal, both widely-recognized legal analysts, law professors, and former senior Justice Department attorneys.

We are also very excited to announce the return of the Scholar-in-Residence program with Deerfield native Rabbi Shmuly Yanklowitz, an influential advocate for social justice and author, from Thursday-Sunday, January 18 – 21, 2024. There will be MANY events during the weekend, and we look forward to involving all branches of the congregation!

We will also begin registration soon for our second Civil Rights Journey. Those who attended our first trip in February of 2020 can attest to what a life-changing experience this was. The dates for the trip are Tuesday-Thursday, March 26-28, 2024, which is during spring break for Northbrook schools and we are hopeful that some families with high school age children will attend.
