We begin counting the Omer at the second seder, and continue for 49 days. This readies us to receive the Torah on the 50th day, Shavuot. Each day has mystical meaning. The first week, we look at seven aspects within Hesed, often translated as loving kindness. Take this week to think of your loving interactions with others in your life.

Many members of our congregation have had allergic reactions to perfume and/or colognes. We are asking that if you could, please keep this in mind and refrain from using these products in the future. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

If you are interested in being a part of our community, please contact Michael Garlin, Executive Director.

Torah reading Day 1

Moses instructs the people to apply lamb's blood to their doorposts and to stay in their homes until the morning, telling them they must keep the service of the sacrifice of the lamb when they get to the Promised Land. They are to tell their children that this is a sign of God's passing over the homes of the Children of Israel. The Israelites do as Moses instructs. In the middle of the night, all of the first-born of the Egyptians are struck down. Following the death of his own son, Pharaoh summons Moses and Aaron, telling them to leave Egypt with his entire slave workforce – the Children of Israel. They leave in great haste, taking their dough before it has leavened. Moses instructs the people to ask of the Egyptians for their jewels of silver and gold. After residing in Egypt for 430 years, some 600,000 people plus livestock departed from Egypt.

Torah reading Day 2

God speaks to Moses about the Holy Days of the year. On these days, there are to be "holy convocations" - gatherings of the people at the Sanctuary. God begins with Shabbat, stating that six days shall people work and the seventh day is one of solemn rest. Next are the three Pilgrimage Festivals - Pesach, Shavuot and Sukkot. Pesach begins on the 14th day of the first month (Nisan). God tells Moses that the Israelites are to eat unleavened bread for seven days.
