RABBI HONIG'S HEARTFELT HIGHLIGHTS

Rabbi Honig

שִׁירוּ לַיהוָה שִׁיר הַדָּשׁ. Sing to God a new song! Three times we open a chapter of the book of Psalms by not just singing to God but singing a new song. Our sacred texts do not repeat phrases often, so this phrase appearing not only twice, but three times, is telling us something that we ought to seriously take to heart – we need to find ways to make our songs new. How can we sing a “new song” when every Friday night is the same service? I have two ways that I love to do that: new tunes and new intentions.

A new tune can be a great way to make something old new again! Different music evokes different feelings. For example, Psalm 150, “Hallelujah,” can be set to many tunes. The upbeat tune that Ark Adventures uses encourages us to clap our hands or even get up and dance. On the other hand, setting it to Leonard Cohen’s ballad offers a slower moment for reflection or settling in. The same words with different music become something new.

My other technique is to set new intentions. When I get caught in a tefillah rut, I bring new intentions to my prayers. I particularly enjoy doing so around the brachot of the amidah. Each bracha has a theme and I like to think about my own hopes and prayers for that theme, focusing on that instead of the words on the page. It helps me find new meaning connected to the existing words of the prayer.

I am excited this year to be working to help bring new tunes and new intentions to some of our Friday night services through Ruach Shabbat. Last year, Rabbi Jonathan Bubis launched this service, and I am excited to partner with him to grow it this year. For each Ruach Shabbat, we will have a mix of new and familiar tunes, along with new intentions, to create a space for each of us to find what we need. I hope that you will join us to sing a new song to God this year. Shanah tovah!

FROM THE CONGREGATION PRESIDENT

Sue Lampert

With the High Holidays approaching, I've been reflecting on the past year, how we've come together in meaningful ways, how much we've built together, and how this experience has shaped me in ways I never expected.

To be honest, I didn't seek a role on the CBS Board of Trustees. It found me. At first, I hesitated when approached by a close friend of mine on the Board, someone I trust deeply. But she said something that resonated with me and reframed my outlook; that leadership isn't always about what we think we want or need. Sometimes, it's about stepping in when the community needs what we have to offer. It's about giving back to the place that has given so much to us. For me, CBS has supported me and my family since the 1960's through every stage of life. This was an opportunity to step in, to bring my skills and my heart to the synagogue that helped shape who I am. My friend sealed her heartfelt pitch, to get me to say "yes" to the Nominating Slate, by adding "What's in it for you is legacy; sharing the space where your mom gave so much of herself for so many years". I'd like to believe my mom is watching from above, quietly cheering me on. But it turns out that there was much more in store for me than I could have imagined when I first said yes.

Through my role as your President, I've found myself more deeply connected to Jewish life; not just the structure of it, but the spirit, seeing Jewish values as guides for everyday decisions. I've come to see the synagogue not simply as a place I go, but as something I'm responsible for. I've had to have uncomfortable conversations, make difficult decisions through a Jewish lens, and find strength in collaboration and tradition. It has given me new ways to practice patience, compassion, and humility and affirmed that leadership in a sacred space is as much about listening as it is about leading.

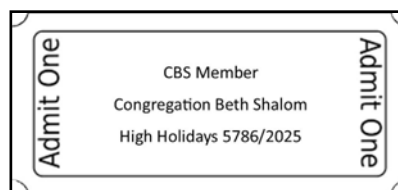

I've come to treasure the small, everyday moments; Shabbat Shalom greetings, our youngest members running to the bimah to gather handfuls of Sunkist Gems after a blessing, the presence of someone saying Kaddish, and the unspoken support we offer each other just by showing up. It's in those moments that I've discovered the true heart of our community, a quiet strength and warmth that holds us all together.

The past year has shown me that leadership at its best is a kind of prayer. It's imperfect and vulnerable, but rooted in love for tradition, for community, and for the people who created the space we now inhabit. If you've been waiting for a moment to get more involved at CBS, let this be it. There is always a place here for your time, your talents, and your presence. As we begin 5786, I hope we can all find ways to connect more deeply to our tradition, to each other, and to the spark of spirituality that lives within us. May this new year bring meaning, connection, and moments of quiet growth for all of us.

L'shana tova umetukah- wishing you a sweet, healthy, and connected new year.

Sue

CANTOR'S NOTES

Cantor Stoehr

A lot of NEW things have happened, are happening, and will be happening. Somewhat a basic truth, I know, as constant change occurs daily in nature. What then is the point?

I am speaking of changes at CBS. The addition of several significant staff members has elevated our collective brain trust and energy in planning for a great year. There are NEW members who have been elected to the Board of Trustees and select others appointed Vice Presidents. We have a NEW High Holiday guest Hazzan, Ben Tisser, who will be conducting our choir, formulated with professional singers and CBS members. While much of the music will be familiar to you, there will be NEW arrangements and melodies to enhance our 5786

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services. Take a listen to one such prayer:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2ii2UiFPyDs>

This is also a NEW year of my tenure at CBS, a startling 38th year. I am excited to see what NEW things I can deliver to my students and our CBS offerings. With but a couple of years remaining on this, my final contract, I want to be innovative until the door closes behind me. I'd love to hear from you about any topics that you may wish to learn with me.

What a blessing to have seen my son marry, now raising two children, along with his lovely wife. Now between this Rosh Hashanah and next year's Simchat Torah, Susan and I will have the NEW blessings of watching our two daughters walking down the aisle for their marriages. We hope to share their Aufrufs with many of you.

So, what's NEW with you? I am always interested in listening to you and continuing to mold our relationships closer.

I began here in 1988, and God-willing will complete my tenure here in 2028. When I celebrate my 40th anniversary as Cantor, CBS will also be celebrating its 60th anniversary. In the next three years a lot of NEW things will happen, and we will be in awe of what we can all do together to propel Congregation Beth Shalom into its next 60 years. I know I won't be employed here in 2088, but I'd be glad to come back for the Kiddush lunch. Wouldn't that be NEWs?

Shana Tova dear friends,

Cantor Steve

Dear CBS families,

I am so very proud to be your CBS Membership Vice President for 2025-2026. Membership is such an important part of our CBS Community. My family has been CBS members for 25 years. I am very proud of my three generation CBS family.

We had three Services Under the Sky nights and two Havdalah Under the Stars this past summer. We met many new and prospective members as well as enjoyed seeing so many of our current members.

We would love to add to our Congregation Beth Shalom family. Please let me know if you know someone interested in joining.

Looking forward to an amazing year,

Edna

Shalom CBS Families!

The school year is here, and we couldn't be more excited to jump into another year full of meaningful programming and fun! September also marks the beginning of the Jewish New Year, and with it comes an exciting season of High Holiday programming.

We're thrilled to bring back Camp Shofar, our interactive High Holiday experience for 3rd–5th graders. Camp Shofar offers students an engaging and age-appropriate way to connect with the themes of the High Holidays, and we can't wait to see the energy and joy it brings to our community.

We're also launching brand-new programming for 6th–12th graders! For our 6th–7th graders, we're excited to introduce Club 67 - a space to explore Jewish identity and the meaning of the High Holidays in a fun and thoughtful environment. For our 8th–12th graders, we're offering special teen programming with Rabbi Jacki Honig, where our teens will have the opportunity to discuss Jewish texts and what being Jewish means to them during the High Holidays, all while connecting with peers their own age. We're looking forward to some meaningful conversations and powerful moments of reflection.

Beyond our holiday offerings, we've got a fun outing coming up just for our 6th–8th graders! On Sunday, September 14 at 12:30 pm, our Geshet group is heading to Whirlyball in Vernon Hills. We'll enjoy lunch, play laser tag, and hit the court to show off our Whirlyball skills. It's going to be a blast! Registration is open on the CBS calendar and closes on September 7, so don't wait to sign up.

Meanwhile, our high schoolers have already kicked off the new USY year in style. Our first lounge of the year - the Annual Pizza Bake-Off was a huge success, with teens showing off their amazing culinary creativity. We're excited to welcome new members and continue building momentum with awesome lounge nights throughout the year.

If your teen is looking to connect with peers both locally and internationally, get them connected with USY. CBS USY meets on Thursdays from 7-9 pm in Beth Shalom's Gloss Youth Lounge, and we would love to include all your high schoolers!

Here's to a joyful, enriching, and inspiring year together!

A Season of Sunshine and Shofars

It seems like it was just yesterday when we were shopping for bug spray and sunblock while also packing for overnight camp. Somehow, in the blink of an eye, a new school year has started, soccer practices and games are back on the schedule, and the High Holidays are just around the corner!

Here at Sisterhood Headquarters (also known as my kitchen table), we have been busy preparing for this special time of year. Between organizing Shalom Bags for new members, scheduling volunteer shifts for the Judaica Shop, preparing our annual membership mailing, and making sure we have enough honey sticks to go around, the energy is buzzing louder than a shofar blast - well, almost!

As we say goodbye to summer's slower pace, I want to invite each of you to lean into this beautiful season of reflection, renewal, and reconnection. Whether you are a regular at Sisterhood events or have been thinking about attending an event, now is the perfect time to get involved.

We have many exciting programs in the works including our Opening Dinner on Wednesday, September 17, featuring author Renée Rosen, who will share highlights from her newest novel, Let's Call Her Barbie. Rosen's book has been described as, "full of behind-the-scenes drama and triumphs across decades," and she is a dynamic speaker you will not want to miss! You can register at <https://tinyurl.com/shopen25>. In addition, orders are now being accepted for our Annual High Holiday Challah and Marble Cake Sale. You can order through Monday, September 8, with items available for pick up on Sunday, September 21, from 11:00 am until 1:00 pm. You can order at <https://tinyurl.com/SHChallah25>. Feel free to contact Sandi Abel with any questions, at patchabel@aol.com.

There are also many volunteer opportunities available for Sisterhood members, including preparing kugels for Congregation Beth Shalom's weekly kiddushim, serving food on Shabbat mornings, knitting with the Sisterhood Knitting group, and helping customers at the Louis Gurvitz Memorial Sisterhood Judaica Shop on Sunday mornings, among others. Please reach out to me at SisterhoodPresident@BethShalomNB.org and I can put you in touch with the correct person.

If you have ideas, energy, time, or an extra set of hands, we would love to have you join the fun. After all, Sisterhood is stronger and more fun when we build it together.

Wishing you and your families a joyful end to summer, and a new year filled with health, sweetness, and connection.

L'shanah tovah!

MEN'S CLUB

Why Be a Part of Men's Club?

I first got involved with the Men's Club about four years ago by attending some of its signature events- Steaks in the Sukkah, World Wide Wrap, and the Lox Box fundraiser. What started as simply showing up to programs quickly became something much more meaningful. I began forming genuine friendships and felt increasingly connected to others during Shabbat and throughout various CBS events. My personal network grew, and I always had someone to talk to, share a laugh with, or lean on.

The Men's Club is more than just camaraderie- it's about community and service. It offers opportunities to give back, to grow spiritually and socially, and to feel part of something bigger than yourself.

As we enter September and prepare to welcome the Jewish New Year, 5786, Congregation Beth Shalom Men's Club is thrilled to kick off another year of programming filled with renewed energy, deeper connections, and meaningful inspiration.

We would like to extend a warm welcome to new members and invite you to join in the events. If you are interested in finding out more about the Men's Club or have any program ideas, please contact me at mensclubpresident@bethshalomnb.org. We look forward to seeing you and sharing another fantastic year together.

Upcoming Men's Club Events:

We're excited to announce that this year's Men's Club Opening Dinner will take place on Monday, September 15, featuring a very special guest: Mike Berman, NBC 5's acclaimed and dynamic sports reporter.

- Synagogue Sukkah Build – Sunday, September 28th
- Steaks in the Sukkah – Sunday, October 12th

L'Shanah Tovah U'Metukah- Wishing you and your loved ones a sweet and meaningful New Year.

2025 Opening Dinner

featuring Mike Berman NBC 5 Chicago Sports Journalist

Since the day he knew he wanted to be a sports journalist, Mike Berman's dream was to work in his hometown. That dream became a reality in August of 2016 when he joined the NBC 5 Sports team. Mike is thrilled to be covering all the Chicago-area teams he grew up cheering for in the country's best sports town.

Mike has a degree in Broadcast News from the School of Journalism at the University of Missouri. While attending school, he worked at KOMU (NBC) as a sports anchor/reporter/producer and lent his voice to the Missouri Baseball team as its PA announcer. Born in Chicago, Mike grew up in Northbrook. He attended Glenbrook North High School.

"Legacy of Resilience: Uniting 3rd Generation Voices of the Shoah"

Congregation Beth Shalom is seeking grandchildren of Holocaust victims/survivors to join us in an important mission to honor and perpetuate the truths of the Holocaust. We seek to collaborate, share stories and amplify each person's unique views and we build a chevra, an effective group of proud Jewish members.

Many of this generation now find themselves living in a world's milieu not so far from the genesis of hatred of 1930's Eastern European countries. Together, we must weave a tapestry of memory, resilience, and hope. This alliance will aspire to remember, reflect, and take collective action in preserving the history of the Shoah.

Your story matters—let's tell it together.

CBS CHEVRE KADDISHE – a SACRED ACT of TRUE KINDNESS

A Chevre Kaddishe, Holy Society, is an assemblage of volunteers who attend to the final ritual preparations for a member of CBS who has passed away. When someone dies there is a prescribed manner of readying the body ritually for burial by means of ceremonious Tahara (washing) and Tachrichim (dressing one in specific articles of clothing). The paramount directive in the entire process is to show reverence for the deceased. One need not be uniquely pious, just someone willing to do his/her best to be part of a Chevre Kaddishe.

Congregation Beth Shalom has such a generous circle of members. Sages have described participation in a Chevre Kaddishe as Chesed Shel Emet, an act of true kindness. This process makes an enormous difference to the deceased's family and creates a renewed perspective, for those engaged in the process, with regard to our own humanity.

Anyone considering joining our Chevre Kaddishe should reach out to Cantor Stoehr.
