“We Remember Them”
5786

Four times every year, our tradition invites us to recite the Yizkor prayers. Even though those occasions always correspond to the same moments in our calendar (Yom Kippur, Shemini Atzeret, Pesach, and Shavuot), we know that there is nothing predictable about grief. Losing someone we love leaves an everlasting hole in our hearts, whether recent or decades old. Grief knows no timeline, and there is no right or wrong way to respond to it. For many of us, this makes grief feel like a loss of control, like sand slipping between our fingers.

In her memoir about loss, Sisters in Mourning, Rabbi Mychal Springer writes about preparing for her mother's passing after a long illness. During this difficult time, she turned to the words of the familiar liturgical poem Adon Olam. The final stanza, which is based on Psalms 31, proclaims:

*I place my spirit in God's hands; my body too can feel God near.
When I sleep, as when I wake, God is with me, I have no fear.*

For Rabbi Springer, the image of God's hands in Adon Olam offered comfort. She writes, "I would say these words with my hands turned up, feeling God's hands holding up my mom, and holding me up as I held her up."

We hope Yizkor will help you feel held up by God, by family and friends, and by our community, even as we mourn.

May the memories of our loved ones be forever a blessing.
