SCHOOL VP REPORT OCTOBER 2025 BY CHARLOTTE STERN

- Coverage has been found for the office on Sundays, as well as someone for the library.
- With Kindergarten nearly at capacity, another teacher was found and we split the class.
- Taschlich program went well without the parents this year. Students met outside sang songs, did a line dance called the Teshuvah trot, did the parachute, had a relay and made a collage. Weather was great and all seemed to have a good time.
- Simchat Torah we held chag friendly class. It was wonderful. 3-5th had it at their normal times. Made edible torahs for snack and even rolled out the whole torah like what happens in the evening. The evening classes joined the congregation.
- Still seeking more room parents
- Still trying to encourage parents of younger students to consider joining the school board.
- Looks like we will not be doing the AJU class this year and will look into having it every other year.
